

Gender Equality in Science

Pathways to Success

Tuesday 10th March 2015

MRC Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit, 15 Chaucer Road, Cambridge

10:30 – 11:00	Coffee\tea and registration
11:00 – 11:05	Introduction
11:05 – 11:25	Susan Gathercole MRC Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit, Cambridge The times they are a-changing
11:25 – 11:45	Tim Bussey Department of Psychology, University of Cambridge ScienceGrrl + Violet Transmissions + Orphan Black + Thomas Dolby = #SheBlindedMeWithScience!
11:45 – 12:05	Barbara Sahakian Department of Psychiatry, University of Cambridge Women in Neuroscience
12:05 – 12:25	Rik Henson MRC Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit, Cambridge Science and Family
12:25 – 12:35	Anne Forde Careers adviser for life science postdocs, Career Service, University of Cambridge Preparation is key
12:35 – 1:30	Lunch
1:30 – 1:50	Francesca Happé MRC Social, Genetic and Developmental Psychiatry Centre, King's College London Challenges and possible solutions
1:50 – 2:10	Emily Holmes MRC Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit, Cambridge Imagine a scientist
2:10 – 2:30	Tom Manly MRC Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit, Cambridge Survival tips for scientists and reflections on an Athena Swan application
2:30 – 2:50	Sylvia Richardson MRC Biostatistics Unit, Cambridge looking back at my career path and choices
2:50 – 3:30	Panel discussion and closing remarks
3:30 – 4:00	Coffee\tea and cake